The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday Auguſt 16. to Monday Auguſt 20. 1683.

Whitehall, Auguſt 19.

THe following Addreſſes having been preſented to His Majeſty, His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive them very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, the Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Juries, by a General Conſent at the Aſſizes holden at Bury St. Edmonds the 27th of July 1683. for the County of Suffolk.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THIS ſo natural and ſo reaſonable for Great Joy to ſuccced Extraordinary Bleſſings, as having paid to Heaven the Humble Tribute of our Thanks; it muſt next preſent it ſelf at your Majeſties Feet. And here our Happineſs and our Duty are ſo equally concern'd; as in the Celebration of that Mighty Bleſſing, the Deliverance of your Sacred Majeſty, and His Royal Highneſs, our Joyes are all imployed.

Had we not remembred the ſad effects of bruiſh Zeal in the late times of Rebellion, and been too often reminded in theſe, that 'tis immortal, the Barbarity of ſuch ingrateful men, as have entred into this laſt Conſpiracy, might have appear'd as great a Wonder, as your Majeſties Preſervation; but to be forgiven or preferred, were never tyes ſtrong enough to bind a falſe or rather true Phanatick. And therefore 'tis no wonder, that they who proclaim themſelves the Fountain of all Power on Earth, nay, allow none elſe a right to the Kingdom of Heaven, ſhould think your Majeſties Life and Dominions at their diſpoſe. Pardon us therefore, Great Sir, that from hearts full of Duty and Care for your Safety, we preſume to ſay, that the Ruine of your Sacred Majeſty, the Church of England, and the Government eſtabliſhed, is laid as deep as the Principles of their pretended Religion; Their Conventicles Preach the Doctrines, and having had too much Reaſon and Experience to doubt, that it hath been the misfortune of too many Corporations to promote its Patriots; We Humbly hope your Majeſties Inſpection will hinder them from being any longer the Receptacles of bad Men, or Engines to play Republican Zealots upon us, when your Majeſty hath greateſt occaſion for the beſt of your Subjects.

Permit us, Sir, we beſeech you, to renew the Ingagements we have formerly made, to lay our Lives, and all we have, at ſtake in defence of your Sacred Majeſty, your Heirs and Succeſſors, the Religion and Government eſtabliſhed; and to declare that we abominate that Horrid train of Conſequences, the Bill of Excluſion, the late Horrid Aſſociation, the Ignoramus Jury, and this Infamous Conſpiracy againſt your Sacred Life, and your Royal Brother, with an Inſurrection at the End.

May Heaven Preſerve you long and Happy, againſt theſe and all other Machinations, that you may raiſe your Glory upon their Treachery, and your Security upon their Rebellion.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Bayliffs, Recorder, Principal Burgeſſes, Miniſter, and other Free Burgeſſes of your Majeſties ancient Borough and Corporation of Eye in the County of Suffolk, to which they have by unanimous Conſent affixed their Seal.

OUR Dangers and our Deliverances having been too great for ſilent Reſentments, We preſume to lay at your Majeſties Feet this Humble Repreſentation of our Joy for the miraculous Preſervation of your Sacred Majeſty, and your Royal Brother from the Helliſh Conſpiracy of the moſt execrable Villains, whoſe numbers being one great Aggravation of their Crimes. It becomes now almoſt as neceſſary to Publiſh, as enjoy an Innocence. We therefore humbly beg, that by declaring our hatred of their Principles, we may diſtinguiſh our ſelves from the men, who by a long Series of Treachery and Rebellion, have tranſmitted to the World this undoubted Truth, That Monarchy and the Church of England, are inconſiſtent with their Syſtems of Polity and Religion.

It is from their Conventicles that this Poyſon hath been diffuſed; from that Root ſprung that Branch which bore the late Horrid Aſſociation, and in defence of it the Ignoramus Jury. Theſe, Sir, we deteſt, and againſt theſe and all other Traiterous Conſpiracies whatſoever, we will with our Lives and Fortunes aſſiſt your Sacred Majeſty, and Royal Brother; the Deſign of whoſe Joynt Deſtruction is the undeniable Conviction of all their Falſe Arguments for your Separation, and lets us ſee how happy and invincible a Security you are to each other.

And becauſe it is too often, and we fear too juſtly a reproach, that Corporations, amongſt other things, are chargeable with part of our misfortunes, by ſtrowding of, and conteſting for men of Republican Principles. A Submiſſion of Charters to your Majeſties Regulation, is now become ſo neceſſary, that we fear it may create Suſpition upon thoſe who deſire it not. We therefore Humbly beg leave to Preſent your Sacred Majeſty with the unanimous Reſolution and deſire of this Corporation, to lay our Charter at your Royal Feet, whenever it ſhall be your Pleaſure to receive it. And Accept we beſeech you, Sir, the Dedication of our ſelves and all we have, to the preſerving your Majeſty, your Heirs and Succeſſors, with the Religion and Government eſtabliſhed.

May all the Crowds of thanks which are paid to Heaven for your Majeſties Deliverance, return in Bleſſings on your Sacred Head, and all the Vows of Loyalty that on theſe Occaſions throng your Imperial Throne, prove equally Glorious in their Terror and Fidelity.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury at the Aſſizes held at Warwick for your Majeſties County of Warwick, this ſeventh day of Auguſt, in the Five and thirtieth year of your Majeſties Reign.

Great Sir,

THat Almighty Power which has hitherto guarded your Royal Perſon, in the worſt of Times and greateſt of Dangers, has now made it evident to all the World, that the hand of Providence is Particular in your Preſervation, becauſe you are, not only Gods Anointed, but the beſt of Kings. The Diſcovery of the late Horrid Conſpiracy, contrived and carried on by Phanatical Rebels againſt your Sacred Perſon, and the Life of your Royal Brother, does manifeſtly declare, that as you are the Delight of our Eyes, and the Breath of our Noſtrils, ſo you are the immediate care of Heaven; and we can never enough Adore and Praiſe that Infinite Mercy that has protected you and your Deareſt Brother, from the Malicious Deſigns of your Cruel Enemies; and with ſuch manifeſt Evidence and Demonſtration, laid open the Damnable Intreagues of their Accurſed Plot, that there is not the leaſt occaſion of ſuſpition left to thoſe that would ſeek it. We therefore in all ſincerity beg leave ſolemnly to proteſt before God, your Majeſty, and the World, that we do Deteſt, Abhor, and Abominate this Late, and all other Traiterous Conſpiracies and Aſſociations whatever, formed againſt your Own, or the Life of your Illuſtrious Brother; and that we will,

will, to the extent of our Lives and Fortunes, protect your Royal Perſon againſt all Traiterous Machinations; ſupport that Government, under which, by your Gracious Protection, we are now Bleſs'd, and maintain the Hereditary Succeſſion of this Imperial Crown, in that direct Line wherein God hath placed it.

Dread Sir,

May this preſent Inſtance of Providence to you, make you throughly ſenſible of that Schiſmatical Sect, who upon all Occaſions have appeared to be yours and your Kingdoms Enemies; and as you are God's Vicegerent here on Earth, ſo may you always imitate Heaven, in having a particular Reguard to your own Safety; and we, as in duty bound, ſhall ever pray, that Happineſs may attend your Enterprizes, and Succeſs Crown all your Actions: That you may ever Triumph upon the Necks of your Enemies, and be ſecure in the Hearts of thoſe, that with the ſame Integrity as we do, profeſs themſelves

Your Majeſties moſt Loyal,
Dutiful, and Obedient Subjects.

We the Noblemen and others, your Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace for this your County, preſent at the ſaid Aſſizes, do unanimouſly concur with the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, in this their Addreſs.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Devon, at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, held for the ſaid County at the Caſtle of Exon, the Tenth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majeſties moſt happy Reign, and of the Grand Inqueſt.

May it pleaſe your Sacred Majeſty,

WE humbly acknowledge it a great Preſumption thus to trouble your Majeſty with our frequent Addreſſes; yet our juſt Abhorrence of the late wicked Contrivance againſt your Majeſty, and his Illuſtrious Highneſs your Deareſt Brother's Life, by deſperate Fanatick Vallains; With the exceſs of Joy, with which our Hearts are filled, at Your wonderful Deliverance from it, will (we hope) prevail with your Majeſty, Graciouſly to Pardon us. When we conſider the monſtrous Ingratitude of the Traitors and the horridneſs of the Treaſon, we cannot but conclude, That the Devil in them, hath outdone himſelf: Barbarous Vallains! who ſince Your Majeſties happy Reſtauration, have had ſo great a ſhare of your Royal Grace and Favour, and have held their Lives and Eſtates by no other Tenure, but that of your Gracious Act of Pardon. As if your Majeſty out of Your wonderful Goodneſs thought, they could ever have been obliged by Kindneſs, or that an eaſie Government could have made them good Subjects.

With the ſincereſt and moſt unfeigned Joy of Loyal Hearts, we Congratulate your Majeſties and his Royal Highneſs's Safety. And we humbly Implore your Sacred Majeſty (who is indeed the Breath of our Noſtrils, and on whom the happineſs of us and our Poſterity depends) never to truſt this Generation of Men more, whoſe Religion (under which they maſque their horrid Deſigns) had its birth in Rebellion, and is as inconſiſtent with Monarchy, as Light with Darkneſs, who have made this Kingdom for many Years a Scene of Treaſon and Rebellion.

And when we reflect on ſome unreaſonable and illegal Votes of the late Houſe of Commons, as that for the Excluſion of your Royal Brother: That your Majeſty ſhould have no Money lent You; That the putting the Penal Laws in Execution againſt Diſſenters, was grievous: And if your Majeſty ſhould come to any untimely Death, they would revenge it on the Papiſts, &c. Induces us to believe, That the foundation of this Plot hath been long laid. And that if your Majeſty had not timely prevented it, they would (as heretofore) have had Ordinances of Parliament for the Juſtifying their Rebellion.

We humbly beg your moſt Sacred Majeſty, to accept this our moſt hearty and ſolemn Promiſe and Declaration, That we will with our Lives and Eſtates, defend your Sacred Majeſty and your Royal Brother, from all the wicked Attempts of theſe Barbarous Villains, from falſe Presbyterian Zeal and Fanatick Purity, which hath once already Involved us in Blood and Ruine.

And with Devout and Loyal Hearts, we ſhall never ceaſe praying, That God Almighty, who hath by Wonders hitherto preſerved You, ſufficient to convince all Mankind, that You are the particular Care of Heaven, will ſtill defend your Sacred Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Brother, and will aſſwage the Pride, abate the Malice, and confound the Devices of all Your Enemies, that your Majeſty may enjoy length of Days, and Reign many Years over us, in an uninterrupted Peace and Quiet.

We the preſent Grand Inqueſt for the Body of the County of Devon, having Peruſed and conſidered the Contents of this Loyal Addreſs of His Majeſt,'s Worſhipful Juſtices of the Peace for this County of Devon, wherein they have, as well expreſſed their juſt Abhorrence of ſuch Diſloyal, Traiterous, and Damnable Deſigns on his moſt Sacred Majeſty's Perſon, his Deareſt Brother, and Government of this Kingdom, as likewiſe Congratulated his Miraculous Preſervation, from the Horrid Effects of ſuch helliſh Cruelty: Do (as in Duty bound, though in a lower Sphere) promiſe and offer our hearty Concurrence with ſuch Noble Reſolutions, and devout Prayers, ſo much conducing to the glory of Almighty God, the Proſperity, peace and ſafety of our Dread Sovereign and his Royal Brother, together with all His Loyal Subjects, under His Majeſty's Protection and Government.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Congratulation of the Grand Inqueſt for City and County of Lichfeild, at the Aſſizes and General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden in the Guild-hall of the ſaid City, the Twelfth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth of your Majeſties Reign, for the happy Deliverance of your Sacred Perſon, and his Highneſs the Duke of York, from the late Inhumane Conſpiracies.

Dread Soveraign,

THey who conſider the Deliverances Providence has vouchſafed your Sacred Majeſty, cannot but Admire as well as Deteſt, the Madneſs and Impiety of theſe late Attempts, ſince neither the Conſideration of the hand of God, ſo manifeſt in your Safeguard, nor yet your matchleſs Clemency, has had the good ſucceſs to move the Atheiſtical or Hypocritical Fanaticks, to a ſenſe of Duty to God, their King, or Country; But to the Scandal of this Nation, and the Horror of Mankind, have contrived, and apparently deſigned the Death of your Majeſty, and your Deareſt Brother, that with the beſt of Princes they might deſtroy the beſt Religion, and the beſt Government in the World. And ſeeing God (in Mercy to his Church and State) has brought to light this work of Darkneſs, We return our humble Thanks to his Wiſdom and Goodneſs, and with Hearts full of Loyalty unfeignedly proteſt, with our Lives and Fortunes to defend your Royal Perſon, and Lawful Succeſſors, againſt all Plots and Conſpiracies whatſoever.

We the Bayliffs, High Steward, and other Juſtices of the Peace, together with the Sheriff and Town Clerk of the ſaid City and County, do unanimouſly Concur with the Grand Jury in this Addreſs.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of your Majeſties moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentry, and other Freeholders of the County of Bedford, being the Body of the ſaid County Aſſembled at the Aſſizes, held at Ampthill the Nineteenth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth year of your Majeſties Reign.

WE your Majeſties moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, with Joy not to be expreſſed, and Hearts full of Adoration, having paid our juſt Acknowledgments to the Divine Goodneſs, under the Senſe of that Wonderful (though continued) Providence which hath always attended, and of late ſo Signally Delivered your own Royal Perſon, and that of your Deareſt Brother, from a Conſpiracy in it ſelf the moſt Horrid, and to us the moſt Deteſtable; Do with the moſt Loyal Aſſurances lay our ſelves at your Majeſties Feet, proteſting our Reſolutions to expoſe our Lives and Fortunes in the defence of your Sacred Perſon, which is ſo Dear to Heaven, that it ſtill multiplies Miracles, That by a Combination of Wonders and Mercies You may be reſcued from the Traiterous Deſigns of Malicious, Ungrateful, and Atheiſtical Subjects; And that your Majeſty may be ſecured of our ſtea-dy and perſevering Loyalty, we do engage our ſelves to the utmoſt of our powers in the Protection not only of Your own Royal Perſon, but alſo of the Monarchy with all its Rights deſcending upon your Royal Brother, or other your undoubted and Legal Heirs and Succeſſors, together with the Religion of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſhed, from which, as we take our Meaſures of Obedience, and are taught to abhor this and all other Treaſonable Conſpiracies, So with it we pray for your Majeſties long Life and Proſperity, and Your Preſervation from the Conſults of all wicked Fanatical, Covenanting, Conſpiring, and Republican Aſſociations.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Town and Borough of Pembrook.

Dread Sir,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs, Burgeſſes, and other the Inhabitants of Your Ancient Town of Pembrook, Recollecting the Diſmal Conſequences of Impiety and Miſery in the late Diſconſolate times of Rebellion and Uſurpation, do with Loyal, Grateful Hearts, humbly acknowledge the Divine Tranſcendent Goodneſs, in the Miraculous Reſtauration of your Majeſty, and the ineſtimable Bleſſings we have thereby enjoyed in the Solemnity of the beſt Religion, the Regular Adminiſtration of Juſtice, and an uninterrupted Security of Traffique, Peace and Plenty under the ſignal Protection of your Soveraign Power.

The ſerious Conſideration whereof hath excited in us a piercing Amazement and Horror, to ſee a Company of Ungrateful Wretches Conſpire Yours, and the Death of your Royal Brother James Duke of York, and the Subverſion of ſo plentiful and Eaſie a Government.

We therefore (as in Duty bound) do declare our Cordial Deteſtation and Abhorrency thereof, together with our fixed Reſolution with our Lives and Fortunes, to defend your moſt Sacred Perſon, and alſo the Legal Monarchical Government in your Majeſty and Lawful Succeſſors, againſt all Seditious Machinations of any Parties, under what Specious Pretences or Deſigns whatſoever.

And we heartily Pray that the great God who hath ſo Miraculouſly delivered you from thoſe late and horrid Fanatical and Popiſh Plots and Conſpiracies, will grant You a long, peaceable and proſperous Reign and Government over us your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Faithful Subjects.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, and inhabitants of your Majeſties ancient Corporation of Leiceſter.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WIth hearts full of Devotion we bleſs God and with unſpeakable joy, congratulate your Majeſty for your Deliverance from the late Helliſh and Damnable Conſpiracy againſt your Sacred Perſon, and your Deareſt Brother the Duke of York, in the Diſcovery whereof, the hand of God was ſo naked and viſible, that we cannot but acknowledge your Royal Life to have been preſerved by another Miracle of that Providence, which had ſo often heretofore interpoſed it ſelf in the wonderful Protection of it.

Wherefore as an inſtance of our gratitude to the Divine goodneſs, and in further Teſtimony of our Loyalty, and that juſt Deteſtation we have to all Conſpirators, we now preſume, in the fulleſt manner we are able, and with all poſſible ſincerity, to aſſure Your Majeſty we ſhall be ever ready to Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the defence of Your Royal Perſon, and Deareſt Brother, and of the Government in Church and State as 'tis now by Law eſtabliſh'd, and of the Legal Deſcent of the Crown in the right Line; and that to the utmoſt of our Power, we will endeavour to Suppreſs and Crush Rebellion and Faction, in what ſhape ſoever it may appear in the World, and put forth it ſelf to diſturb Your Majeſties Affairs, whether it be in a malitious Libel, or a Seditious Petition, in an Impudent Remonſtrance, or a Perjured Ignoramus Jury, whether in a Solemn Leagne and Covenant, or a Curſed and Traiterous Aſſociation; and as it ſhall be our conſtant buſineſs to bring as many as we can of the Conſpirators who are fled from the Juſtice of Your Laws, to condign Puniſhment, ſo with our juſt Reſentments ſhall we Diſcountenance thoſe ill-minded men, who ſeem ſo cold and ſlow, in declaring their belief of the Plot, as if they did repine at the great and marvellous Delivery of Your Majeſty and were not touched with a ſence of this Infinite Mercy of God.

We now put up our hearty Prayers, that it may pleaſe Almighty God to Protect and Defend, and long continue the Life of Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, and of Your Royal Brother the Duke of York, from all Treaſons and Conſpiracies, and that he would cover Your Enemies with Shame, and confound all their wicked Plots and Devices.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Subſtantial Free-holders of your Majeſties North-Ryding of the County of York.

Humbly Sheweth,

THat we Your Majeſties moſt Loyal and Obedient Subjects, having with great amazement heard of a Horrid and Deviliſh Conſpiracy againſt Your Majeſty and Your Deareſt Brother his Royal Highneſs James Duke of York, carried on by Perſons of diſaffected and Damnable Principles. We cannot forbear declaring to Your Majeſty our utter Hatred and Deteſtation of ſo Horrid Villanies, and do render our unfeigned thanks to Almighty God for this ſo Happy and ſo Seaſonable a Diſcovery and Protection of the beſt of Princes in Your Royal Perſon, as alſo of the beſt of Governments.

And we do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſties belief, that we are unanimouſly reſolved to Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in defence of Your Majeſties Perſon, Your Heirs and Succeſſors, and Your Government both in Church and State, as it is now eſtabliſhed. And do and ever ſhall moſt heartily pray, that Your Majeſties days may be many, Your Reign Proſperous, and that Your Enemies may ever be diſappointed and fall before You. July the 20th 1683.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Dread Sir,

WE Chriſtopher Viſcount Hatton, Governor of Your Majeſties Iſland of Guernſey (part of Your Ancient Dutchy of Normandy) the Bayliff, Jurats, Clergy, and all other your Majeſties Dutiful Subjects inhabiting the ſame, having with Horror and Amazement heard of the moſt Impious and Execrable Conſpiracy plotted and contriv'd of late againſt the Life of your Sacred Majeſty, and that of his Royal Higheſs your Brother; and being moved with a due ſenſe of the Miraculous Manifeſtation of the Divine goodneſs of God in your Preſervation, We think our ſelves oblig'd on this occaſion to make to your Majeſty this moſt humble Addreſs and ſincere Proteſtation, That as it has pleaſed God to include all our Happineſs, and make all our Proſperity to conſiſt in that of Your Sacred Perſon, and Your Royal Family, whom He hath preſerv'd in ſo ſignal a manner, in the midſt of ſo many and great Dangers, not being weary to ſhew the wonders of His Providence in the protection of your Majeſty, who in imitation of the King of Kings hath ceſſantly ſhowr'd down on Your People, the effects of your Royal Bounty; So we your Majeſties Loyal Subjects do Proteſt on our part, never to adhere or hold any Correſpondence with any who ſhall ſo much as attempt to offer any Offence againſt Your Sacred Perſon, (whom we pray God long to preſerve) or that would in the leaſt manner diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of Your happy Government, or interrupt the lawful courſe of the Succeſſion of the Royal Family, when it ſhall pleaſe God to exchange your Temporal Crowns for a Celeſtial and an Eternal one.

And if any occaſion ſhall preſent it ſelf to manifeſt by our actions the Sincerity of this our Proteſtation, we humbly beſeech your Majeſty to be fully perſwaded, that we will ever employ our Lives and Fortunes for your Service, withing, if there be any ſo Ingrateful, and ſo unfortunate to fail in their juſt Duty, or to attempt any thing that is contrary to it, that they may not only be deprived of the advantage of ſo happy a Government, but that they may receive ſuch Puniſhments as are ſuitable and proportionable to the enormity of their Crimes.

Thus after having from the bottom of our Hearts, returned Thanks to God for the Mercies which we have receiv'd in the Miraculous Preſervations of your Sacred Perſon, and his Royal Higheſs, we offer up to Him our Fervent Prayers for the prolongation of the Life of your Sacred Majeſty, and for the proſperity of your Reign, and for a happy and everlaſting continuation of the Crown in your Royal Family.

This Addreſs was preſented to His Majeſty in French, by Captain Charles Hatton, Doctor Johnſon Dean of Guernſey, and Mr. Richard Beauvoir, being Signed by all the Inhabitants of the ſaid Iſland.

Gellow,
